Ghale gaun village has full of local cultural. Besides the overwhelming hospitality the Gurung people surprises you with, Ghale Gaun is the only place from where you can view magnificent western Himalayas like Machhapuchhare, Annapurna I, Annapurna IV, Lamjung Himal, Bouddha Himal, Himalchuli and many more smaller peaks. The sightseeing into the Ghalegaun is amazing experience where you can learn and feel about the local culture. Along the way you can view waterfalls and intense rhododendron forests.

Trek as an Individual, Private Group or Join a Scheduled Trek

Global Adventure Trekking specializes in organizing treks for individuals, couples, and small groups. You can trek by yourself as a private group on the date you select without paying extra, or you can choose to join a small group that is scheduled during your preferred time frame. We also now and then arrange groups on dates other than those shown on this schedule so feel free to contact us to inquire about other possible dates for group treks that you might be able to join.

Small groups with matching capability

Global Adventure Trekking limits groups to 8 persons and coordinates groups to insure compatibility and similar trekking capabilities, so that no one person in the group feels they are being held back or holding back other members of the group. Our sole interest is insure that each client can experience Nepal in the way that matches their interests and capabilities.

When are the Treks programmed?

Please see below the scheduled times for treks in 2014/15. If you would like to join one of these groups simply indicate your trek interest and preferred departure date when you contact us. If a group is shown as Closed (full) please check with us as we may be begins another group on or around that date that you could join.
